“ Judy is the sister Jesus gave me We got to know each other later in life. She is my husband's niece. We started doing Bible studies together over the phone right before she was diagnosed, and we kept it up until she couldn't anymore. I learned so much from her, and her love and friendship is something I've never experienced before except from my husband, her uncle. She had a very loving heart, like the heart of Jesus. I can't wait to see you again, Judy, when we all get up there to Heaven and see you again. I miss our talks and your love. Linda Blackburn
