“ This is sad! I just saw this. He and I had been friends since I was 16. We had just started talking. He was telling me how happy his life was with his new girlfriend and the things he was doing. He has always been a kind and easy going guy! I was blessed to call him my friend! Lisa Owen Kilgore

“ Keith was the friend who always had time and compassion to help whenever he was asked. I will miss my friend and I regret putting off our kayak trip because I know he wanted to show me his new found skills in paddling... Lol. I will miss my friend and my condolences to his family and loved ones.

Keith was a good man in so many ways. That some people dont even know about. For one when my mom died He was with her when she took her last breath. He was something else. I loved him and always will.

“ Keith accepted me for me. He was friends 1st with Buster, Keith L and the list goes on but that never stopped him from being a friend to me even though I was an outsider. He was a caring ,intelligent man who loved his Lady and his pets. I just was advised of his passing and my heart is broken because we all lost a good friend and a good man...seldom do we know a man like Keith Kinard! Thank you, Keith for not judging me and being there always....Fly high, my dear friend. P.S. If you ever are out in your kayak up there, think of Buster and me and one day maybe we'll all be able to enjoy that ride together. Love you!

“ I'm going to Miss My Friend and when I say that I mean a True Friend! If I needed anything or help doing something he was always there. I was Happy for him when he called me to tell me about Glenda. I can't remember him being that Happy, she was what he needed and was waiting to find. Thank you. Glenda for making him Glow, hahaha. When we talked and I'd say how ya doing he'd say I'm doing Great Sis. I know I'll see him again but until I do Spread Your Wings and Fly 🙏. Love You My Friend, Till I see you again your going to be Missed.

“ The good Lord blessed me with the last two years of this wonderful man. Keith was a good men with a huge heart. Every time he would see a vet he would always thank him for his service. Most of the time the vet would be wearing a cap that let Keith know he was a veteran. He had a heart of gold. I will always be thankful that I knew him. Rest In Peace Love. Glenda Walker
