“ I first met Ken in 1986. He was dating my best friend, Beth. Ken pulled into my driveway on Labor Day to meet me, my boyfriend (now husband) George, and Beth. We had plans to go to Opryland Theme Park for the day. It was pouring rain, so we spent the day at Hickory Hollow Mall instead. I remember riding in his red Mustang to Nashville. What a trip! We all felt so cool in that car. Ken was the life of the party that day. I remember laughing and having so much fun. We felt so grown up being allowed to ride with him and then having the day to ourselves at the mall. My dad was there too as we were only 16, but he left us alone. It was a day I'll never forget and Ken was a big part of why I remember it so vividly. I haven't seen Ken since high school. There were many instances through the years when we passed his mothers house, that we wondered how he was doing. I was happy to learn he had two beautiful children. My husband, George Pearson, and I remember Ken with a smile. My condolences to his family.
