

Larry W Anderson

April 26, 1949 - July 1, 2018

Larry W. Anderson of Monteagle, TN
April 26, 1949 – July 1, 2018

A hard working man who believed in providing for his family by the sweat of his brow. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints. His life had become a greater testimony to those of us who knew him well. Behold old things are passed away. Ecclesiastes 7:1 The day of one's death is more precious than ones birth. He now rests in the arms of the Lord and has found that peace that passeth all understanding. He was preceded in death by his son, Aarron. He is survived by his wife, Deborah Anderson; daughters, Lilly, Tilly and Sara; sons, Larry Jr. (Melissa), Anthony, Matt 1 (Amy), Eric, Matt 2-2 and Joseph (Elizabeth); sixteen grandchildren; god son, Dwight Layne (Hollie) and his little fishing buddy, Boo Boo. No service is planned, but the family will have a graveside memorial at a later date.

“ What a sad loss to those who knew him. I first met Larry when I was 17 years old. I was trying to get out of my wild stage because I was about to marry his sister. He had moved to Baton Rouge, La. for a short period of time. I always visited Larry on my trips to Tennessee. We shared a few adventures hunting and fishing and a few wild times that I will not go into. I am grateful that I visited enough so I got to watch his kids grow up and love them. He knew my kids and loved them, too. Larry and I were not merely brother-in-laws. We were more like brothers. I am proud of the fact that in all the years I knew him there was never an unkind or angry word said between us. His obituary said that he was a hard working man. No truer words were ever spoken. Larry was a hard worker and he would do anything to help you. I remember once in the mid seventies when we were driving on the interstate and a car was on fire on the side of the road. The vehicle was a total loss and the people who owned it were devastated. It was obvious that they could not afford any kind of loss. He gave those people five hundred dollars for that burned out piece of junk. Then he borrowed gas money from me. I remember thinking at the time there you cannot do more for your fellow human being than to give them all that you have. One of my biggest regrets in life will be that we lost contact with each other from the mid-nineties until his passing. Rest in peace my brother. You have earned that rest. May God watch over you for eternity.

*Thank you chester for sharing a memory. Larry was the love of my life & most definitely my soulmate. Words can't describe how i feel right now. I took the best of care of him & he drew his last breath while i was holding his hand. We adopted 2 little girls & i must finish what we started but how my heart is so broken. He had become my baby & im so lost without him but i know God has a plan for me to carry out. I do believe God gave me the girls to comfort me during my time of sorrow cause He knew He was going to take Larry. Larry spoke highly of you but in truth didn't want any disagreement with anyone & had gained so much peace that he vowed to keep it that way. Im so proud of what he had become & what he stood for in our walk together. May God ever so richly bless you. Thank you once again & how proud & thankful i am that God loved me enough to share Larry with me. With Gods love
