“ Adam,
I am so sorry to hear about your mothers passing, and your fathers as well. I hope this finds you doing well. I do still think of you often, as above all else I have always considered you a dear friend. You have my deepest condolences. I do hope you will contact me, I'd love to hear from you. 505-681-1777

Love always

“ Lavenia was one of first friends. She met me when her family was building their house across the street from my parents house at Sycamore Circle. We played in the sand pile in front of her house and then were friends at the dance studio downtown where we learned how to do an indian dance and tap. We loved the Monkees she always got to imagine Davey as her boyfriend and I always got Mickey. (I really wanted Davey). We spent the night at each other's houses for years and still never knew each other. I have missed her for forty years. Oh, my dear friend, how I loved you. I hope you are dancing now with Davey.
