“ Rest in peace, my sweet and kind beautiful friend.
I will always cherish the memories of when we were younger, and had so much fun together. You will always be close to my heart.
God bless you.

“ I met you and your sister decades ago after 8 years of your father missing and the family didn't know where he was or what happened. Granny was diagnosed with cancer and Jim found out so he came to grannies home and introduced his new family. Though we never got to really know each other, I felt a familial bond immediately. Rest easy cousin.

“ Leigh was one of the most beautiful and sweet young ladies I have ever known. Leigh attended Garden City schools with my daughter and I had the pleasure of knowing and loving her for the wonderful person she was. My sympathy to those who knew and loved her. Leigh and her family are in my prayers.
