“ Dear Dimple, Sue and Becky,

I just saw the notice of your loss when I was checking Dot Rayburn's obit. Please accept our sincere sympathy and prayers. I know our Dad and Mom loved and appreciated Leslie and Dimple's friendship and their dedication to the Church. May God bless and keep you all.

“ *Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow,
May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.
“If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15)*

“ Sue: I do not recall meeting your folks but surely I saw your parents in the yard as I passed. I regret your loss. I cherish your friendship since grade school; no idea which grade we first met in. Was glad to see you at the Master Gardener Class a few years ago. Feel free to contact me at mhalcomb@utk.edu or 931-224-5353. Did you attend our 50th Reunion?

“ It was my privilege to know Leslie Clifton and his kindness. He was in the service during WWII with a friend of mine from Union City, Obion County, TN. We shared our memories. May God bless Leslie's family and be with them during these difficult times. Lynn Laster
