“ I was so sad when I heard the news of Lisa's passing. I had not seen her since high school. She and I went through North Elementary together and I can still remember riding the bus and dad picking her and her sisters up for school. Time goes by so quickly and the memories of our childhood are so precious. Even though Manchester was her home, I always remember Lisa living down Canyon Drive in the little town of Altamont. May God bless all of her family and friends during this difficult time.

Love,

“ Go fly my beautiful friend. Go find what we couldn't find here on earth. You now have your wings, Angel. Go find your peace and save a place for me. Lisa was one of the greatest friends I have ever known.

“ The best summers of my youth were spend with Lisa, her sisters, and many cousins. As kids we would hang out at Pat and Dwight's house. Often, we walk to the river to go swimming. Lisa and I got to spend some time together almost every summer until we were teenagers. She was a great friends and I looked forward to our time together more than summer its self. Lisa always held a special place in my heart and she always will. You will be missed!!

“ Lisa and I were friends from freshman year in High School until the present. Over the years we were in and out of each others life, just due to we both had families and she has moved off the mountain. She was in my wedding, and was responsible for getting me to the church without seeing Michael now my husband. Although, I begged her to take me to see him. Her response was no way your Mama gave me strict orders, I am not making her mad. Evidently my Mom had a bluff on most of my friends. But she did spend the most important day of my life with me. Friday will make 22yrs since that day, and I could have never imagined laying her to rest on that day 22 yrs later. Lisa this was not the plan. I am trying to wrap my head around her passing away, and my heart so aches for her family. I have so many memories with her and not enough time or space but I will hold on to them and cherish our brief friendship here on earth. IT definitely not long enough. I love you Lisa rest in peace my beautiful friend.
