

Marcia Laurie Johnson

September 21, 1932 - November 15, 2024

In Loving Memory of Marcia Laurie Johnson 1932-2024

We are saddened to announce the passing of Laurie Johnson: Born September 21st, 1932, in Killen Alabama, the daughter to the late Bennie Price Beavers and Lola Hamner.

She is survived by her sisters Mary, Francis, Margaret and Ann along with her daughters Deanna and Angela and 3 generations of grandchildren. Laurie is remembered for her playful and compassionate heart. Her house was always open to family. She loved to homemake but she also enjoyed going out with her beloved husband Joseph and traveling the world.

With their children growing more independent- Laurie set to working in a home run photography studio that she and her husband owned. Laurie has held many other various job titles such as being a travel agent, loan officer and realtor.

With a luxurious flair and two green thumbs, Laurie excelled at everything she did and her 92 years were never dull. The impression Laurie has made on the lives of those who knew her cannot be erased. She will be welcomed with open arms by those who preceded her in passing namely her sons, Joseph and Michael and her husband Joseph Sr.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, November 21, 2024, at 1:00 PM at Tri-Cities Memorial Gardens in Florence Alabama.
