“ Bob and Billy, I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother. To all the rest of her many friends and family, I am feeling the pain of knowing we cannot hear her voice again, or read her comments on Facebook, as you all are. You all have my deepest sympathy, and I wish for peace and comfort that she would also hope for us all. I have no doubts as she told me many times that her family was waiting for her, especially her Daddy, who died when she was so young. Despite the trials put before her in this life, she led a good one, basing all her hope and faith in the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, who visited her on several occasions. She was an accomplished but unknown artist because she was so humble. She told many great stories, some written and some I hope to hear someday from family and friends.

"Old Mother Earth, who feeds us, will also tuck all God's children to sleep in her good, warm earth for a spell." --Margie Lynch- from one of her stories.

And indeed she has. Peace and Love to all.

“ So sad to hear of Margie’s passing. Spent the night with her a few months ago and a wonderful visit. She was an amazing individual and so talented. A warrior for fairness and non-discrimination, on the Rosa Parks wall. Beautiful artist! I had hoped to visit her on her birthday this month. I am Brenda Jackson Mercier, daughter to John Jackson! Leaves a mighty hole to lose such a positive, strong living soul! I am so sorry for our loss of such a wonderful soul in our family!!!

So sorry to hear about Margie's passing. i have very fond memories of seeing her weekly when I went to Paul's Restaurant at the American Legion in Tullahoma. She was always my waitress. She was my cousin. I am Henry Jackson's son. She was a sweet soul and she will be missed by everyone.
