“ I am Carolyn Parent - the "little sister" of Mark's dad. I was only 9 1/2 years old when Mark was born. And I was so very excited about the new addition to our family. And I remained excited about it throughout Mark's life. We were more like cousins than "aunt" and "nephew." I thought the world of Mark. He was a very special guy and accomplished much in his life. He fought a very dignified and gallant fight against cancer for 3 1/2 years. I just loved him so much and will always miss him.

I graduate high school with Mark in 1976. When we were juniors in High school we both worked at the Coca Cola plant in Tullahoma after school hours. He was such an hard worker but also very comical. My prayers are we Lisa and family.
