“ Emeritus is not the same without Ms. Martha's wonderful smile and sweet greeting. She was such a pleasant lady to be around. I certainly appreciate the kindness she always showed my Mother and me. Praying for all of her family during this difficult process of grieving.

“ I was so sad when I heard the passing of Martha. She was such warm hearted and kind individual (her and Bill both). Have so many wonderful memories of them both. They will always be close in my heart. Praying God will be with all of you at this difficult time.

“ Martha was a wonderful woman. Strong, intelligent, hard working and the truest faithful friend to the end. I grew up knowing Martha and Bill and it was a privilege to have had both as an influence on my life. Solid advice on growing up, to how to play yard croquet even in the dark of night. I remember Martha and Bill both always with a smile on their face and a laugh not far behind.

Their job was amazing. Being a 10 year old and being able to just walk through their candy warehouse was as close to being Charlie in the willy wonka chocolate factory as anyone could ever be. I was by the ole homestead recently and the candy building still smells of sugar, though there hasn't been candy there in years. Or maybe it was just wishful thinking and the desire to go back to those happier times with the Galligans! Martha's Taco dinner nite. Or her Christmas dinners with her homemade real Coconut Cake!. :)

The world is a little dimmer with Martha's light gone, however it must be shining even brighter in heaven. She will be missed, But I take comfort in knowing we will be with her longer in heaven than we will ever be without her here on Earth.

*Bless her and her family,
