

Martin L Luttrell Jr

April 24, 1949 - September 10, 2016

Martin L. Luttrell Jr. 67, a resident of Tullahoma, passed away after a short illness on Saturday, September 10, 2016 at Centennial Hospital in Nashville. Graveside services will be held on Tuesday, September 13, 2016 at 11 AM at Maplewood Cemetery with Pastor Greg Driver officiating. Visitation with the family will be Monday, September 12 from 5 – 8 PM at Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home.

A native of Tullahoma, he was the son of the late Martin L. and Irene Dorsett Luttrell. He had worked as a fork lift driver for Tennessee Tanning for many years. He enjoyed whittling and woodworking, but his favorite pastime was visiting with friends and family. He was a jokester and enjoyed pulling pranks on people.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one son, Lewis Dorsett; one daughter, Sara Aichele and two infant sisters.

He is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Ida Jane Dorsett Luttrell of Tullahoma; sons, Mark Wade Luttrell of Tullahoma, Martin Dorsett and his wife, Kim of Alabama and Jamie Luttrell of Tullahoma; daughters, Karen Lowe and her husband, Jim of Tracy City and Cindy Dorsett of Tullahoma; brother, Charles Luttrell and his wife, Shirley of Tullahoma; sister, Eller Bryan and her husband, Earl of Hillsboro; sixteen grandchildren; twenty seven great grandchildren and several nieces, nephews and good friends.

Online condolences may be made at www.davesculbertsonfuneralhome.com. Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
