“ My loving memories are of Bootsie Praising The Lord with Aunt Lizzie at Calvary Baptist Church. She always had a loving Hug for everyone and her smile filled the room. My Mom, Nora Mae Burkhalter, told me the sad news, but we know that she is singing in the Holy Choir and she & Aunt Lizzie are joyfully raising their hands to touch God.

I am so sorry and hope you know tho I've not seen her in years, yes, she holds a special spot in my heart.

I'm in Arizona now and Mom doesn't get out much, but our thoughts and Prayers are with you all.

With sympathy, Nancy Burkhalter

“ Boots was the most unselfish person I've ever known. Our family was blessed to have known her. She spent years with my boys building their character. I'll never forget coming home and watching her playing Legos with them on the floor or pushing them on the swing set or doing whatever they wanted her to do. She was amazing! We loved Boots.
