“ I remember the day of Janie and JJ s wedding,. She looked so beautiful in a long grey dress and. Her hair was perfect.. when I think of her that is how I see her and Janie I pray that when you think oh your mom and Jodi you see them hugging and laughing and seeing Jesus... Just know we all are so sorry she suffered so long and we love you all...we are praying for you and your family. And here if you need anything. ..

“Mary Jo was one of the first residents I met at NHC Tullahoma when I began volunteering. During the last two years knowing her was a pleasure. She certainly will be missed. During this difficult time, I pray GOD’s peace for her family and all that shared life with her at NHC.”
