“ Aunt Mazie was always so full of life and would always make you smile and laugh. She would introduce herself as "Crazy Mazie" I told her I always thought of her as the "crazy cat lady" without the cats!

I can remember her doing her exercise to for her hips, she would get in the floor with legs crossed and then roll from side to side across the floor! She would sit in some of the strangest positions! Her legs thrown across the top of the sofa or something!

She made life fun. I hate I didn't get to see her or spend more time with her later in life, but growing up when I was younger and staying overnight was always fun and great memories. RIP Crazy Aunt Mazie. I love you.

Your niece, Naomi (Smith) Coleman
