

Patricia (Patti) Faye Clemens

May 21, 1930 - December 15, 2019

Patricia (Patti) Faye Clemens, born Patricia Faye Wolford, May 21, 1930 in Columbus Ohio. Deceased Sunday, December 15, 2019, aged 89 in Tullahoma.

Patti began work as an accountant in her father's wallpaper shop in downtown Columbus when she was still a teenager. She moved from Columbus to Tullahoma ca. 1952 to accompany her husband, Pat Clemens, as he began a career at the AEDC. Though a transplant, she loved the Tullahoma area and called it home, designing the family home, competing frequently in local sailing events, and working as school psychologist in Grundy and Bedford Counties. She was an avid artist, working in many media, and actively supporting the Tullahoma Art Center.

Education and Accomplishments:

1. College studies at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio;
2. Bachelor of Arts from MTSU;
3. Master of Arts from MTSU;
4. Licensed Psychological Examiner in the State of Tennessee;
5. Member, National Association of School Psychologists;
6. Past President, Tullahoma League of Women Voters;
7. Coffee County Commissioner (1978);
8. Member, Friends of Short Springs;
9. Co-authored with husband, Pat, the book, Gnus, Gnomes, and Gnats;
10. Member, Not Yet Dead Poet's Society.

Survived by brother Kermit Wolford, nephew Todd Wolford, niece Deanna Wolford, sister-in-law Cathy Wolford, son Dan Clemens, daughter-in-law Bai-Yu Clemens, son Matt Clemens, daughter-in-law Laura Bolte, and grandson Joshua Clemens.

“ Patti was a very loving and generous lady. Our family will forever be grateful to her and her husband Pat for their kindness to us when we first came to the US from England. They were instrumental in helping us to get settled here. From picking us up at the airport to helping get us kids enrolled in school, they were there for us. I remember her with great fondness.

The Cable family sends our condolences to the Clemens family.
