“ I played with Pat in Jackson Roundhouse band and a few months with Bottom Line. He was fun to be around and was a supportive and honest friend and helped to define that time period. He was my best man at our wedding. He was unique and had a great sense of humor. Hilda and I have many fond memories of Pat. A talented guy who will be missed by all.

“ My condolences to you Mike, Erin, Kevin, and Tim. Pat was a wonderful friend, band mate, and co-conspirator in numerous acts of absurdity. I have a thousand plus great memories of him. My best to you all.

“ Pat always made you laugh! He never failed to tell you a corny joke or amaze you with a magic trick. He was always so thankful and plentiful with compliments. I've known Pat for 30 years and always considered him a great friend. Pat had started church on the Sunday's that he could and he enjoyed it so very much. He even got to play the drums one Sunday! He would tell me about reading his bible and praying. I believe Pat knew he didn't have very long and I do believe he was ready to go home. We will love and remember you always Pat. Until we meet again.

“ Hugs and my condolences to the Moore families and friends. My favorite memory of Pat was the high school routine he did with Pat Cox--frequently in Ms. Hammond's room. Pat would quietly walk into the room and dump Mr. Cox out of his desk onto the floor. He would brush Pat C's clothes off, set him back in the seat of his desk, and walk out of the room. Always made my day. ❤️
