“ Oh my sweet, sweet Pat. My memories of him are forever embedded in my heart. I remember the first time I saw Pat about 4-5 months after he was born. I was just 9 but remember thinking what a cute , cuddly baby he was and so very happy. Pat remained that same sweet person his entire life. When Pat was about 4 yr. old our cousin Joan Durm Baker and her then boy friend Butch, myself and Charlie Williams were circling Campus Grill. Someone Butch knew asked who the little boy was. Pat popped up and said " I Hugh Russell's boy" You know Hugh Russell ? In his most grown up 4 yr old voice. We never forgot his response to who he was. Loved that little cousin of mine then, love the man he grew into. I will miss his phone calls especially in the winter when he couldn't get out as much. I heard from him often. You are loved and will most definitely be missed.
