“ Patty always was smiling and laughing. I meet Patty at Wal-Mart fabric department in 1986. She was so happy. I enjoyed buying material there, but I made friends with all the laddies who worked there. Patty was to be my friend to the end.

“ I loved Patty. We have been friends for years. We could go for months even years without seeing each other then pick right back up where we left off. Not two long ago she and I went to lunch in her new convertible. She taught me to make German Stollen years ago. So good! I know Patty loved her family. The love of her life was her husband, Gene. I can't come to her service but I will be thinking about Patty for years to come. She was my friend. Prayers for her family. Prayers for Daryl and little Trenton. She loved you so very much. Peggy Sawyer.

“ I met Patty at the Senior Center. She was our ceramic leader. I was completely new to ceramics and she was so encouraging. She taught me the eyes were not finished until you put white dots in them for the eyes. I enjoyed every moment I spent with her! A True Treasure
