“ I had the pleasure of working for Paul at Towne Wine & Liquor while attending Georgetown University in the mid 1970's. He was a real gentleman and one of the nicest people you could ever have for a boss. He taught me a great deal about handling people and knowing your priorities. I wish I had had the opportunity to meet him again after he left WDC.

“ Your Dad spent many a Thanksgiving with myself and late husband Julius. He was a kind and caring man. We even studied together many years before in our study group. He always had a kind word and loving smile. This world has lost a very special human being who gave so much of his warmth to all that knew him. Barbara Haberman
