I love you Granny and will miss you very much. I know that because of my hard headedness and the issues we had because of it that we grew apart and I hadn't seen you in quite some time. I just hope that you knew exactly how much you mean to me. Fortunately, I have faith enough that tells me you always knew I loved you. This is harder for me than anyone will ever know because I couldn't over look my own hard head and pride. I will see you again one day, but until then Hug and Kiss my daddy for me. And enjoy your newfound freedom of this earthly pain. Fly high with the Angels and be at peace with our Father in Heaven. With all my Love, April <3

I apologize for trying to contact this way, but I was looking to see if you, or anyone, might be able to help me get a copy or a digital picture of her eulogy ... The copy that my husband has held dear was lost in the move to a different state, and he is crushed... Thank you for your help.
