“ I am very sad to hear my dear live-long pen-friend died last september. Since 1960 we sent letters, presents, e-mail and almost 60 years we sheared our joys although we were living far away from eachother. she was very dear to me, always writing full of love about her family, a very caring person. I'll miss her. May God bless her soul. Mieke and Paul, Schiedam. The Netherlands

“ The first time I met Penny she was 17 and I was about 11. She was so quiet and shy. She got over that fast. Can't be a Cox with 4 boys and be quiet!

I also recall she didn't like electric appliances. She got over that too I heard. She was so kind and friendly and never did quite get the role of Aunt but more like older friend. Prayers for you boys and Uncle George. Love, Linda Cox Kordsmeier
