“ Dear Young Family,

I deeply regret that I was on an overseas trip when my dear friend, Ray Young, passed and, therefore, was unable to attend his services. He has been an important part of my life for the past twelve years, and my family has learned to love and respect him. It has also been my privilege to know your family during those years. He was a truly good and kind man, always a gentleman with never a bad word for anyone. The world is a better place for having had him among us and I will greatly miss him.

“ Dear Young family,

*The stories about Ray are far too extensive to recount here. He was a good friend and a very good guy. We had many good times at AEDC and at the Ski club. I have missed him since he became ill and will miss him even more now.
I'm sorry that I was unaware of his passing.*
