“ One of my favorite memories of your sweet dad happened during his time as preacher for the congregation at the Blvd. Church of Christ, where he and your mom were both loved so much. My six year old granddaughter was in the church lobby and was showing off to some church members of her doing the “Floss” dance. Next thing you know, she had Richard, and Frank Crownover, in the lobby trying to do the floss. She was so tickled and they had all of us laughing at them while she kept saying try again because she thought. they were doing it wrong! Both Richard and Frank were such wonderful Christian men, who passed within days of each other, and were assured of their heavenly home, but will be missed here on this earth.

Love,
