“ Where do I even begin? So, so many memories to share. 32 years worth. From the time I walked into Beverly and Lewis's 32 years ago to our last phone conversation just a few weeks ago. You won me over 32 years ago with that outgoing and humorous personality of yours. You helped give me my 2 beautiful babies. They are going to miss you like crazy. I can't share just 1 memory because there are way too many between us. So here are a few of the best to me. The day we met was November 25, 1988...the day we got married was June 23, 1989...the day Richard was born and we became parents for the first time was September 15, 1989....the day Hannah was born was November 12 1991. Those were the very best memories. But there were a lot of fun times along with some rough times. I loved you from the day I met you. We may have went our separate ways, but I never stopped caring. You rest easy now with your Mom, Debbie, and David now. Watch over our babies Todd, they are going to need it. ❤️👍
