“ Miss Travis was my 5th grade teacher. She left a lasting impression on me throughout the years! I'm so sorry for your loss; she is fondly remembered!

“ I was very saddened to hear of the loss of Miss Travis. She was an amazing witness, teacher, mentor, and friend. When I first started teaching, she and Daphne Graham held my hand and helped me to get myself grounded as a first-year teacher. She cared about, everyone, and she always put them first. I am very "Blessed" just to have known Miss Travis let alone be able to call her my friend.

Returning to town after being away for twenty years, she was one of the first people I wanted to see. I am Blessed to have had the opportunity to visit her in the nursing home.

We laughed together just like we used to do when I was only twenty-three years old. We mourned those that we had lost, the state of education today, and students we had in the past that were now very successful; she received such joy in their success. She was a servant at heart, and it was obvious; I learned "so" much from her about so many things in addition to education. She will be greatly missed, but she is "HOME". The home we all long for after this life. I am certain the Lord has spoken the words, "Well done my good and faithful servant". I can only hope to finish this life as well as she lived it every day! Thank you for sharing her with those of us outside the family. I loved her very much; she was a special friend!

I am sorry I missed the funeral. I did not know about it until I read the paper the day after she was buried. I would have been with you for her celebration "Home". We will see her again!

God Bless you all and may the Lord comfort you until you see her again

Sincerely,

“ I was honored to work at R. E. Lee with a super group of people, Robbie being one of many. She loved seeing the students learn and shared her great cooking with our staff at any gathering of pot luck lunches we enjoyed. Your dedication to learning made a difference Robbie, Thank you. Ms. Travis was my 5th gr teacher at RE Lee. I remember that year fondly, and she was a big part of it. Ms. Travis was wise and kept one step ahead of us mischievous students. I've thought about her through the years (40 yrs since she was my teacher). Rest In Peace, Ms Travis. Thank you for being such a memorable teacher. My sincere condolences to her family & friends.

Mrs. Travis was one of my teachers at REL many many years ago. She always knew her students. She always had that smile. It was an honor to be your student. Prayers to her family and lean to the Lord during this time.
