“ Pat and family, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Robbin. I haven't seen your children since we all lived out Woodbury Hwy. Your kids and mine played together all the time. I remember Robbin was the sweetest child so caring for everyone. She could come out with the funniest things and I would think where did that come from Robbin. All your children were well mannered and I enjoyed them. I just lost touch with a lot of folks. I send prayers to all the family and God be with you through this trying time.
