“ I can't believe he's gone. We were roommates in early 2012. He was always goofy and loved life. I remember 1 of the first few days we moved in the trailer I thought someone was mowing the yard but it was him asleep snoring in the living room. Every morning he would play Toby Keith. Even though we split ways after only a few months. I'm still gonna miss him.

“ After Bonnie moved to Dalton, Georgia, she met her half-brother, Bobby, in Tennessee. She was really impressed by how kind and loving he was towards her. That was obvious to all during Bonnie's funeral in April 2014 as Bobby was very saddened by Bonnie's passing. Even though Bonnie and Bobby did not have much time together here on earth, they are forever united in heaven. May God bless you both and the families who remain behind to remember you. Love, Sandy
