“ Hi Shelley, I am so sad to hear Tim has passed. You truly kept a smile on his face. I can remember first meeting him and the joy in his eyes to be with you. I hope through these years you have both had many memories to cherish. Yes he did love horses . I remember the great times and family get togethers/trips. Those memories will never fade. Lives do change but love never does. Although we have not seen each other in years I hope you know I always care and think of you. Love always Deidre "Sonni", sonnidrie f@gmail.com

“ Even though many years have passed since Tim who is my first cousin and I have seen each other.. There will always be those years growing up when your cousins Kaye and Larry would come in from Michigan and for those few days we did some crazy things. Of course it was always my big brother Larry and you that terrorised us girls but oh the fun we had. I will keep those fond memories forever as we had a great childhood and you will always be a part of us. I love you Tim and now you can go and raise more hell with my big brother. Your Michigan cousin... Kaye
