“ I was sitting here with a headache. They are debilitating to me because I don't get them often. But it made me think of Ronnie. We used to give him shit in the Army because he would get bad migraines and of course we would give him shit about it. Thing is I loved Ronald David King then and I love him still and wanted someone else to know. I hope he knows. Nancy Norris too.

“ We became friends in the military and he has been a friend ever since. Our joke was that we would marry after he had married everyone else twice. He was a true and loyal friend. I will miss him.

“ Our first encounter was 42 years ago and we shared a conversation through our chain linked fence and became lifelong friends. You were my best friend as a child. We played football, war, kickball, baseball, shot BB guns, rode bicycles, and went roller skating together. We taught each other how to kiss in Mr Levi's garden and would hide there to get away from everyone else. We would talk late into the night through my bedroom window. We always had each other's back. You defended me when no one else did and told me I was still beautiful when my face was mangled in a car accident. Our families were so close and to this day we still talk about how your family was the best neighbors we ever encountered. Thank you for making my childhood fantastic and memorable! I will miss you and love you always and will close with the quote from the movie Stand by Me "I never had any friends later on like the ones I had when I was twelve. Jesus does anyone?" That quote was written for you! I will miss you and love you! RIP!

“ I will always remember you Ronnie. Growing up next door to your family was one of the best times of my life. You don't find neighbors like that anymore, or neighbors that were so close like our families were. I will never forget talking to you and yelling "Rooonnnnie" out my bedroom window when you use to come home blasting your stereo on your car. Or playing Uno with your mom. You were funny and a very sweet kind hearted person. I am very sad with this news. God Bless and heal your family as I know this will be very difficult for them. Will miss you and your posts on facebook.
