“ later on my buddy Tim Bell came along, at the time his mustang was still a project. they threw him behind the brand new corvettes where you couldn't see it, so me and Ronnie went and got him and let him park by us so that everyone could see it and see the hard work Tim had put into it!! Ronnie saw its potential when other people didn't, and that said a lot about Ronnie as a person. from that car show forward i'd text him seeing if he's coming to whatever car shows popped up so we could go together, we'd sit in our little lawn chairs and id tell him about all my teenage shenanigans and we'd always laugh and he would give me advice that has stuck with me to this day. unfortunately, for awhile i quit going to the shows because i felt like i needed to do more with the mustang, but i'd still text Ronnie every once in awhile giving him updates and seeing how he's doing. he was never shy to remind me how proud he was of everything i did, and sometimes i really needed to hear that from somebody. this is a long post but i just wanted to spread how good of a man Ronnie was, and the memories i had shared with him. he'll always be my mustang buddy and my favorite “old man”, and i will never forget all the advice and laughs we had. i was blessed to have known Ronnie. my love and prayers go to to all of his family and friends.

“ Roy and Sonja Ronnie was so great to Brenda Arnold and me. We talked at times just checking on each other. This breaks my heart. I may not be able to show for funeral due to health problems and Brenda has moved to Memphis due to same. She moved in with her daughter. I will be praying for you all
