

Ronnie W Faulk

December 5, 1941 - January 5, 2021

Ronnie W. Faulk of Tullahoma passed this life on Tuesday, January 5, 2021 at NHC of Tullahoma at the age of 79. No local services are scheduled.

A native of Shelbyville, he was the son of the late Homer and Ada Mae Clanton Faulk. He was a U S Air Force veteran and retired from Bell South/ATT after 35 years of service. He attended Eastview Baptist Church and enjoyed fishing and boating. He also loved tinkering in his shop.

The following loving note was written by his granddaughter, Kayla – “Grampa, I’m so glad your my grampa because you fix ours toys and junk so we can play with it and kill the bees so we can sit on porch and you take us places and let us have fun! Love, Kayla I (heart) u and don’t forget #1(Smilely face) Grampa.”

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by brother, Glen Faulk. Mr. Faulk is survived by his wife, Gloria Faulk of Tullahoma; sons, Rodney Faulk (Charlene) of Ft. Lauderdale and Dewayne Faulk of Tullahoma; grandchildren, Colby Faulk (Jenn), Austin, Kayla, Hailey, Morgen and Tyler Faulk and great grandchild Aubrey Faulk.

Online condolences may be made at www.davesculbertsonfuneralhome.com. Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Ronnie W Faulk

January 25, 2023 at 12:28 AM

“ Now that you have departed, you will be missed for all those moments that we shared. Rest in our LORD'S home.

Larry Campbell - January 08, 2021 at 09:06 AM