“ Sending hugs, condolences and prayers for the Peary family. I'm so very sorry to hear of Rudy passing. I met Rudy at Tyson's when I worked in the cafeteria. But lost contact with him in 2004. He was such a funny little guy, always had a smile on his face. He told me about his love for his girlfriend, Angie, and how he wanted to marry her. I'm happy to know his dream came true. He also gave me a cd with songs he wrote and sang to. I still have it and will cherish forever. Rest in peace, Rudy and we'll see you on the other side. May God bring peace and comfort to his wife and family in this sad time. An old friend,
