“ She was Aunt Ruth to me. She was one of my dad's younger sisters. Jess Wilder. I moved away from Tullahoma when I was young. I still remember her smiling face. I will miss writing her letters. Love you Aunt Ruth.

“ As I was growing up my grandmother allways wrote letters to me and every year never missed sending me a birthday card or Christmas card and she was allways getting me close shoes every thing toys . I've had the best grandmother in this world I was the only granddaughter but she love us all the same it's hard of letting go but she was my grandmother on earth and now she is my Angel watching over me in heaven . Grenny I love you so much I miss you dearly but I allso know your voice I hear is the wind allways gideing me your granddaughter (hot shot). Lisa Bell

“ I remember as kids when mama would take us to visit granny she would always get candy from her purse and it would always be the red cinnamon ones or the butterscotch, and she always remembered I loved the butterscotch, she was the most loving and sweetest person I've ever known, if I can be just half the woman she was I know she would be proud, I love you always granny! Rest in paradise! Love always your great granddaughter Leslie May!!

“ Grandma (Ruth) was a truly kind, Christ following woman who loved to walk and smiled very time she was able to see or hear from her family. Heaven gained a true Angel.
