“ My wife and I attend First Christian Church in Tullahoma, where Sam and his family (brother James and their parents) have often also attended. It was always impressive (and inspiring) to see this little family of four together in one of the pews ahead of us. We send our deepest sympathies and caring for them at this time of their loss. - Don and Cathy Roberds

“ Sam was a quiet kid, but couldn't be more kind to those he interacted with. Our family is friends of Jim and Jennifer as well as Sam and James, I remember them coming over for cook outs and Sam would throw the ball with me and my little brother. He and I shared many classes and were in many clubs together. We once took a trip to Atlanta for FBLA, and we all got crammed on to one bus, we watched a movie on the way back, and shared a blanket. Not to mention his incredible intelligence, he helped everyone and anyone he could with their academics. He always cared so much for everyone else, he always put others first. The world is a much darker place without him here. He was a wonderful person, and we will all miss him very much.

“ Sam was an amazing person and an even better friend. He was quiet, but always made everyone around him feel included. Gosh could he make me laugh. What a true gift he was in so many of our lives. My prayers are with you. I remember sometimes he used to give me the carrots from his lunch because he "didn't need any more carrot-top." He will be greatly missed.

“ *Jim, Jennifer and James,
We are so sad to hear of Sam's death. He was such a cute kid running around the ball park while James and Alex played baseball. Love that red hair. He will be in our hearts forever.*
