“ Sandra was my mother. She had a hard life, but she never gave up. Especially not on her kids. The life lessons you taught me are with me still mom. Thank you for loving me. I miss you more than words can say

You're mama was a great woman. A strong tough woman. And yes she loved her children & family more than life itself. I always admired the woman she was. She had a lot more forgiveness & compassion for people who hurt her than I sure would have. She was one of my sister-in-laws through my marriage to Rex one of her x- husbands brothers. She's in Heaven now with Jesus & all the angels & has the new wonderful eternal life she deserves. She's with Steve now too & all her other family & friends that have went on. I'm sure Rex was there to greet her & Steve as they crossed over. He loved them both. RIP Sandra when I get to the other side I'll definitely look you up! Love you Nancy
