

Scott Allen Foster

February 16, 1967 - October 7, 2014

Scott Allen Foster, 47 of Murfreesboro, passed away Tuesday, October 7, 2014. No services are scheduled.

A native of Detroit, Michigan, he was the son of the late Henry Foster and Joyce Lee Maulden Foster of Murfreesboro. He had worked as a white water rafting river guide on the Ocoee River. In addition to rafting, he enjoyed biking and hiking. He loved listening to music and being with his friends.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by one brother, Joshua Foster of Murfreesboro, one sister, Stacey Denby and her husband, Bill of Cowan and special nephew, Zach "Fred" Foster of Murfreesboro.

Online condolences may be made at www.davesculbertsonfuneralhome.com. Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Scott Allen Foster

January 25, 2023 at 12:28 AM

“ We used to hang out alot. We was nice but blunt about stuff. I remember before his surgery, he'd get tired walking down the hallway. After he was riding his bike again. He was so happy and had so much more energy. I will truly miss him. He was too young. My thoughts and feelings go out to his family. C. Monroe

chris - October 12, 2014 at 09:54 AM