“ I take alot of medication now and sometimes get confused but I seem to remember this precious lady used to work the drive thru at McDonald's in Tullahoma and she would greet me every single morning with the same happy smiling warm loving face as she delivered my items to me. She was very good at her job and an asset to the company. Just thought you all should know. (She had to have felt bad sometime but it never showed). Betty McGowan

“ I love you Aunt Sharon! I will always remember you and Uncle James coming to North Carolina to visit us. I will always be Uncle James fiddle player. I am so blessed to have seen you when I was on my way to California. I wish I could have seen you guys more but the time we did have was a blessing. I know I have told you this before but Thank you for everything. I love and will miss you deeply. I can't wait to see you in heaven. XOXO
