“ Sheila, I worked with you years ago and you help me move to an apartment. You had your little girl with you. We laughed and did a few things after work with the other Co-Workers. And then one day your little girl was grown up and married my Nephew. I will never forget the good times we had together working and laughing. Rest in peace and be free of all pain. Love you Sheila your old friend and co-worker. Your Daughter's Aunt Cathy Bell.
