“ I wish I could speak with you now. I wish I could just be with you and have a conversation. I feel like you the only person who can change my mind. That’s why I wish you were here right now. I miss you so so much all I want to do is just see your face, and hug you. I feel like you would be the coolest most understanding father in the world. You already were but I could comprehend that now. My dream would be for me and you for one week just do the most fun and beautiful things there are to do anywhere I’d love to just travel around with you on the bike. I just know we’d be best friends. I just wish you were here all this time you’ve been gone I feel like since you left my life has gone completely downhill. You the only person I can talk too now I just wish you could talk back to me. Now, all I can wish and hope for is that you hear my thoughts now, you hear my apology now, you see how much I love you now I just want you to know that. I’m sorry for the life you had to live I wish I could have been older to understand the way you were. I just know if you were still here this would be the best times of your life because you somehow raised a REALLY smart daughter that cares deeply about every person I emotionally put myself towards. I just hope that all of this doesn’t contribute to me having a long sad life, and to have to contribute towards a stronger me and have a huge career to take of these people I love and care about so much. I want to be able to take care of me, my beautiful most sweetest mother in the history or humans, and my brother who needs ALOT of help. I can’t think of anybody else who deserves more than EVERYTHING my wonderful momma, she will get taken care of the way she deserves eventually and it’ll be by me. I want my family to be fixed, to be happy, to care about each other to truly love each other. I just want to make everyone’s life better I want to make the world better I hope I can actually achieve that for my mother at some point in my life.
