“ So many memories of MoMA. Like the time she put the bird on the front porch to clean his cage. She got a knock at the door from a neighbor accusing my dad of whistling at her. Upon investigation, mom learned that the bird was the culprit. I don't believed the neighbor believed her. lol

“ I spent many summers with my Aunt Stella in Tennessee, this was my favorite child hood memory. She always had chocolate pies waiting for me when I would come to visit. She was a kind soul and a loving aunt.

“ I have lots of Memories of Aunt Stella. She was a very selfless Woman who Loved her family. I like to remember the fun times. I remember one time when I was staying there, Aunt Stella had the minister from the church over to the house. As they sat there talking, the dog (a pug) came out and jumped on the couch next to the minister with a pair a Vickie’s underpants over its head and was looking thru the leg holes. Stella just looked at the minister and said “well, looks like the dogs been in Vickie’s drawers again”.

“ When I was little, I remember at Christmas one year we went to this store in Battle Creek and they had a doll house, it was HUGE..or at least to me...and I wanted that more than anything...she bought it for me and I thought it was the best Christmas present anyone had ever given to me. I don't think mom and dad were all that pleased, we had to get it back home to Sullivan, IL, and the car was already packed to the gills. But we managed and I had it for a long time. I also remember I hated that everyone called me Linny growing up...but she made it sound so glamorous, I think she was one of the first in the family to actually start calling me Linda rather than Linny. Love her so much. Didn't get to spend a lot of time with her later in life, but growing up, she was a huge part of my life.
