“ I met Steve just this past year. (After he got sick) He was a good friend of my husband's father from Madison (Charles Spurlock). Turns out, he lived just down the street from us. He began coming by our house to talk with my husband (Bud). I started visiting with them, and just about every weekend, he would come sit with us for hours. Sometimes he would watch tv in the garage with Bud, we would go with him to eat at Farmers, Cracker Barrel and sometimes just at our house. He always seemed to have a bright outlook about his future and talked about the care his family had given him. We will always remember his "grape Gatoraide, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, and Nekot chocolate cookies" stories. Until he wasn't able, he always offered to help Bud on various car projects. When he got worse, we always fixed him a comfy place to sit. We truly enjoyed his visits and sometimes we were just quiet. To his family, please know that he was cared for here, and will be missed. He was a hard worker and very unselfish.

Thank you Bud and JoAnna, I'm glad to hear you were there for him even if just to listen. He definately was a hard worker, one of the hardest I've known and many times did without in order to help someone else. He will be missed each and every day but I know he's no longer hurting. May he rest in peace.

It was nice to meet you at the funeral. Steve had a lot of great friends who took really good care of him, especially at the end of his life. May God bless you both for being kind and caring to Steve. We are still hurting from the loss of Steve but are glad that he no longer has to endure the pains and worries of this life. He will always be in our hearts with fondest memories.
