“ Tammy was one of my best friends I miss her very much. I could call her date or night it didn't matter that she would always answer. She understood me you knew where I was always coming from. She's always decorating the yard for every holiday bringing me out of my depression with her funny quirky ways and sayings. Even though she was younger than me she treated me like I was her child always so giving and we helped each other through our panic attacks. Tammy was an awesome person I love her and I miss her. She always said she's going to make it happen captain and she always did. You will always be missed and to her family my condolences. Even though I never met them I kind of knew him cuz she talked about her kids all the time how she missed them and wanted to be a family again.

“ well I do not even know where to start, Tammie was an amazing woman and as i sit here thinking about her on her birthday she told me a few weeks ago she was going to have a party and everyone had to bring something butterfly because God knows she loves her butterfly like i do elephants. Any time tammie seen something elephant related she got it for me. She was my best friend my ride or die the person i could call no matter what time it was and she was there even if it was just that i needed someone to listen. I have called her phone several times since she has been gone to hear her voicemail. Tammie and I were inseparable when i was pregnant with my now 7 month old. we hung out every day cleaning houses. she was there for me when i had several surgeries after having my son. she always said you need me you call and ill be there and she was. i did not expect to have to let her go so soon or for my son to lose his God mother but i willl never forget her and our time together and i will remind my son of his beautiful butterfly. i know youre in heaven watching over all you loved ones. <3 i love you forever and always rip my wonderful beautiful butterfly.
love your dear friend,
Lanee

TP

Tammie and I grew up together and by the time we hit out teenage years she was living with her horrible grandmother. She was a mean woman and my parents petition the court to adopt Tammie but that mean old woman had her sent to TPS and no contact with my family at all. Wish we'd got her sooner cause we were sisters and always will be “ Tammie worked for my mother and helped me out a few times. She was very diligent and kind to my mother and sister. We hated losing her. So very sorry for the family. Hope her and Sherree are having many laughs together on the other side. Rest In Peace sweet lady.

“ Some of my best memories of Tammie are of Jordan's stays in the hospital. No matter the season, she was there decorating his hospital room from top to bottom. Many of his stays happened at Halloween. Beginning at the door going into his room and from ceiling to floor would be decorated with skulls, spiders, ghosts, pumpkins and everything in between. Tammie did everything to make Jordan's stays as cheerful as possible. I would laugh every time I entered his room.
