“ Teresa, when my family moved back to Florida and I was teenager, you would come you at our house to "baby sit" Bryan and I. I remember you letting me drive your yellow Camaro(?) to get my drivers license. You were terrific always letting me tagalong with you and your friends-who seemed so much older than I was. Somehow I never really got in trouble as long as I was with you-which is funny when I think about it. We would have so much fun playing Uno at your parent's house with your friends and Sammy, going to parties, concerts, the movies, the beach, you even went to Grand Bahama Island with me one time. You were truly an amazing woman and I am so very fortunate to have had such wonderful times with you. May rest in peace.Love ya!
