“ Be at peace, my sweet sister Terri! You will now be watching over us with mom, dad and Susie. We see a lot of you in your wonderful daughter Kayte and that is a big comfort to us. We will love and miss you always. Your baby sister, Betsi, and family

“ Some of my fondest memories of Terri, growing up, are of her during her Beatles days! Long, straight/"ironed" hair, cut out Beatles guitars on the walls of the three sisters room on Stuart Street. My first memory of what concerts were about was when Terri and Judy got the opportunity to see the Beatles in Memphis! Never saw them so excited! I will hold these dear to my heart forever. She was smarter than the rest of us, sweet and loving, a fabulous mom to a now amazing woman, Kayte! We have missed for too many years and now there is relief and joy that she is free as a cardinal.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family of Teresa. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I spent time with the Pobjewski family when I was young, as her sister, Susie, and I went to the same school and were best friends. I was so shocked and sad when we lost Susie at such a young age. The last time I saw the family was at Susie's memorial in Tullahoma, but I kept in touch with their Mother, Vivian, through Christmas cards for many years, and she would update me on her wonderful daughters, Terri, Judi, Cindi and Betsi. I am so very sorry for your loss of Terri.
