“ Tony, Sissy (Mary) and I took a road trip from Tullahoma up to Swanee then down to the three states of Tennessee. Sissy and I were in our teens and Tony showed us one of the best times we ever had as teenagers. We laughed till we cried as the miles rolled by. I will never forget how that trip to Tullahoma showed me a part of my family that I had never known. I am so sorry for your loss, but Shelia was right about Tony's laughter, it was infectious. I pray that you will find peace in his passing knowing that he no longer is in pain. God bless you all

Tony grew up in our neighborhood covering Peachtree St., White Oak, and Bel-Aire Drive. The kids from this neighborhood gathered after dark to play outdoor games. We played Night Army, Hide and Seek, and others until Tony taught us the game of all games, Kick the Can. This became our No. 1 game and still holds one of my favor memories. We were big on nicknames and honored him with the name "Kick The Can Tony". We all stopped what we were doing when we heard the melody "Turkey in the Straw" coming from the Goody Wagon and ran him down for a snow cone. I speak for all the families: Pope, Alsup, Mullins, Hobbs, Holt's, and I'm sure many others, "You was a big portion of our childhood and will always be remembered".

“ Thinking back, “the ice cream man” was one of the largest influences of my childhood. I can always remember hearing the sweet sound in the distance and I would run to my mom and beg her for some change so that I could get a treat. More days that I can count my siblings and friends and I would wait in our driveway patiently for him to finally make his way to our house. Thank you so much Mr. Tony for making my childhood and so many others’ one to remember. We love you and hope your sweet soul rests in peace.
