“ My deepest sympathies go out to your family. Tony was a good man and always seemed to have something nice to say. When my sister & I came down to see our family in Tennessee (which Tony is my niece Tonya's husband) he would always tease me about drinking Pepsi products. He then was driving for Coca Cola and just thought that we should all drink Coke products. I know that when we visit next month, Tony will be missed by many. I sure will miss seeing him. We will see him again in Heaven someday. Who knows, maybe he is drinking an ice cold Coca Cola in Heaven right now!
