“ This was the last picture we took together. We laughed so hard til we cried that night. We were taking breathing treatments for fun on a Saturday night. Laughing so hard at ourselves that, that was our excitement for the night. 48 years worth of memories. Good, bad, best and worst of times. Our happiest and saddest times . We were there for each other. Losing you broke my heart. Growing up I always looked up to you. You taught me how to do my makeup, shave my legs. We saw each other through marriages , divorced. Birth of our kids. You were a Big sister to me. A constant in my life. When i thought about growing old, I saw us floating in the pool, music blaring. And all the kids telling us we need to sit our old tails down. ( in our minds we'd still think we were cute of course! ). I never imagined you'd be gone. I still can't wrap my head around losing you. Your passing truly has hurt my soul. I miss you so much. Your laugh . Your hugs. Our family will never be the same without you. I promise I will be there for Courtney and Alex anytime they need me. I need them to because they our some of the best parts of you . And I miss you so much . I will keep stories and memories that we shared together. As a family you will not be forgotten. I remember when you came home the last time . We hugged so tight and so long we were both crying. I would give anything for another hug from you. To hear you call me Cassie Belle . I know you're no longer dealing with struggles and the pain of life. That you are with your Daddy & Little Roger . I'm glad you have peace. But the selfish part of me wants you here. We need you here. . I love and miss you so much

“ Aunt Trina, our hearts are broken. This was very hard news for me to hear. I can still remember the smell of your perfume and the makeup you'd leave behind on my shirt from the hugs and lipstick kisses. I'll never forget your vibrant spirit when you walked in the room. I love and miss you already. It's never easy to hear that someone you know and love has gained their wings so early in life. Now that you have reunited with your Dad and Big Brother, please give them plenty of love for all of us. I'm praying daily for Aunt Shirley, Jeffery, Courtney and Alex. Until we meet again Aunt Trina.

“ I would like to send all my condolences to the Bennett and Finchum families as well as to her son Alex Russell and daughter Courtney Russell. Trina was such an amazing person who loved her children and family more than words could ever explain. One of the last memories we had together was when me,her and my younger brother went and had lunch at a place off Wedgewood Ave in Nashville, Tn called Smoking Thighs. Trina fell in love with their chicken wings and boy did she make a mess of her hands, shirt, pants etc. Lol. We laughed so hard saying her clothes ain't more of them than she did lol. We had made plans to go back one day which unfortunately that wont happen now but I will definitely be thinking of her each time I go there. Trina you will be dearly missed and now that your up with my mother yall both look over me each and every day Gone but never forgotten. R.I.P.Trina

“ MY daughter, I just can't believe you are gone. I miss you so much. You had so much love for your children, family and everyone. You were like a ray of sunshine when you came into a room. When you were born, your dad and I were so filled with happiness and joy with having such a healthy beautiful little baby girl. Nothing can take away the hurt I feel right now. I know you, your dad, and brother are enjoying being together in heaven; but I still have the tears and hurting in me, from missing all of you. I will always Love all of you for ever and ever. Mom
