“ Billy was a high school classmate of mine. He was a friend and confidant in high school. When I left for Iraq in 2011 during the draw down, he sent me a care package. He was part of our military family and brotherhood. His smile and laughter is what I remember most. My most heartfelt and sincere condolences. - Lisa Castilleja-Rodriguez

“ Mel, family & friends,

Just anguished to hear of Bill's passing. As a new member to 1SOCONS early in 2009, I began hearing the Legend of Bill Johnson who had PCSd to Germany; soon excitement was in the air as news traveled that Bill was preparing to return to the squadron.

Upon meeting "Uncle Bill" as I had quickly named him, I was not disappointed as he fully lived up to his bigger than life reputation. He was the type of person who lit up a room by simply walking in. He quickly crushed a bad mood with his Dennis the menace smile and often, a few colorful words to make us laugh. We forgot all about what was troubling us when he was around.

Uncle Bill was the ultimate people person, a mentor to many. You could count on him to tell you the ugly truth, knowing his honesty would make us stronger, better people. He was always one of the first to step up when a friend or co-worker was in need. He was a leader in all walks of life.

Bill was quick to share proud tales and endless pictures of his beloved family. His beautiful and loving wife, awesome children, and of course his precious grand children were always in his heart and on his mind. While Bill loved the treasures he found hunting antiques around the world, it was obvious he treasured his family most of all.

Although I only knew Bill for a short few years, I feel as though I knew him for decades. I have been truly blessed the the experience, and I like many, am a better person for having known him and will cherish fond memories until we meet again in a much better place. May God's love bring his perfect peace to our lives as we are comforted that there will be no more tears in heaven.

Hugs and prayers,

Dianna Register

“ Billy and I were best friends in high school (Germany). Part of the dreaded “Wolfpack” with Daniel Combs and Mark Polk. We played football, baseball and basketball together. We never caught up live after I left Germany but we did communicate a lot on FB. He appeared to have a fantastic life with his wife, kids, and grandkids. We were brothers in Germany. He was a great man! RIP my friend. You will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Melanie,

I'm so sorry for your loss. Bill was a great friend to many people and world is a dimmer place without him. He was my friend & mentor, and provided me guidance in every aspect of my life from the moment I met him. He'll forever be in our hearts and prayers. If there is anyway we can help, please let us know.
